Submission on extending the definition of a Significant Global Entity

10 December 2019

The Tax Justice Network Australia (TJN-Aus) welcomes this opportunity to make submission on the exposure draft of the Bill to extend the definition of a significant global entity. The TJN-Aus has been very supportive of the Australian Government implementing country-by-country reporting and of the Multilateral Anti-Avoidance Law and Diverted Profits Tax. The TJN-Aus strongly supports the exposure draft of the Bill and again supports the government placing the Bill in the Parliament at the earliest possible opportunity. Country-by-country reporting, Multilateral Anti-Avoidance Law and Diverted Profits Tax have all helped increase confidence in the tax system as well as assisting in getting large multinational corporations to pay more tax in Australia, when they are doing business in Australia.

The TJN-Aus supports the definition of significant global entity in the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 being extended so that it:

- Applies to groups of entities headed by an entity other than a listed company in the same way as it applies to groups headed by a listed company; and
- Applies despite exceptions to when a group of entities must prepare consolidated accounts, including materiality rules, in applicable accounting rules.

The TJN-Aus also supports the amendments to modify the rules for entities that must undertake country-by-country reporting under Subdivision 815-E so that these rules apply to country-by-country reporting entities rather than significant global entities more generally, to ensure these rules are aligned with Australia's international commitments.

The TJN-Aus supports the amendments to require that country-by-country reporting entities need to include information on the other members of any country-by-country reporting group of which the entity is a member for the purposes of the country-by-country reporting provisions. The TJN-Aus supports that such entities must provide statements dealing with the global operations and activities and the allocation between countries of the tax paid by the group members of any notional listed company group of which they are a member.

Ultimately, the TJN-Aus would like to see global country-by-country reporting extended to all multinational entities with over $250 million in revenue.

Background on the Tax Justice Network Australia

The Tax Justice Network Australia (TJN-Aus) is the Australian branch of the Tax Justice Network (TJN) and the Global Alliance for Tax Justice. TJN is an independent organisation launched in the British Houses of Parliament in March 2003. It is dedicated to high-level research, analysis and advocacy in the field of tax and regulation. TJN works to map, analyse and explain the role of taxation and the harmful impacts of tax evasion, tax avoidance, tax competition and tax havens. TJN's objective is to encourage reform at the global and national levels. The Tax Justice Network aims to:

- (a) promote sustainable finance for development;
- (b) promote international co-operation on tax regulation and tax related crimes;
- (c) oppose tax havens;
- (d) promote progressive and equitable taxation;
- (e) promote corporate responsibility and accountability; and
- (f) promote tax compliance and a culture of responsibility.

In Australia the current members of TJN-Aus are:
